CALIFORNIA COMMUNITY COLLEGE
MEN'S BASKETBALL SEMIFINAL GAME 1

	1	2	Final
Compton College	42	34	76
College of the Sequoias	41	28	69

Game Summary: On Cory Carroll's 3pt shot with less than one second left in the first half the Compton College Tartars led the favored COS Giants 42-41. Like all their games in the playoffs and now in the state semis, Compton continues to hang around and give their opponents fits. The Tartars were led in scoring by Kevin Lewis' 13 points and Nick Porter's 11 points. The Giants were paced by Robert Powell's 14 and Matt Misko's 10 points.

Compton pulls out to a 55-46 lead before COS goes on a 13-5 run and ties the game up at 59 all with 7:47 left in the game. Inside players Eric Montgomery and Darron Brown got into foul trouble with a little over seven minutes in the game. Game MVP Kevin Lewis stepped up along with his teammates to hold on and win the game. Compton put the clamps down on COS with 1:59 left in the game only giving up 1 freethrow and hitting all six free throws by Lewis, Porter and Looney.

Coach Damaine Powell Comments: "It is always a great game when you beat a COS team that is coached as well as they are. When we have somebody in foul trouble or not playing their game, somebody always steps up. We had a tremendous team effort and I am really proud of my players. Lewis a tremendous person, easy to coach, always on time, and never causes any problems."
