---

Game 2

Antelope Valley College 76, Lassen College 72

What started out as a blow out turned into a slugfest as Antelope Valley held off Lassen in a quarterfinal game at the California Community Colleges Commission on Athletics women's basketball championships, 76-72.

Antelope Valley took the opening tip off and ran out to a 9-1 lead after three minutes of play. Lassen, however, answered quickly going on an 8-0 lead to tie the game at 9-9 with 15 minutes remaining and eventually took a 14-9 lead.

The two teams spent the remainder of the half taking turns leading. Lassen eventually settled for a 37-35 lead. The two-point deficit marked the ninth time Antelope Valley had trailed at halftime and yet ended up winning.

With nearly seven minutes gone in the second half, Lassen held a 55-47 lead its biggest of the second half. Antelope Valley, however, once again battled back, taking the lead at 56-55 with 10 minutes left.

Lassen would never lead again. Although the Cougars did make it interesting as Lassen got within two at 67-65 with 2:25 remaining. In fact Lassen would get within two three more times in the final minutes, but the Cougars were unable to overtake Antelope Valley.

Antelope Valley advances to the semifinals tomorrow at 7 p.m. against the winner of Pasadena and Reedley colleges.

"I thought we looked good at the start," said Antelope Valley head coach John Taylor commenting on the Marauders' slow start. "We turned it around with the 8-0 run, but that is basketball—a game of streaks.

"In the end I think Lassen was exhausted and we still had some legs."

RaChauna Randle led Antelope Valley with 19 points and grabbed a game-high 10 rebounds. Shalonie Mitchell added 19 points and Renita Mitchell chipped in 15. Ebony Joi led all scorers with 20 points.
