

Cypress Chargers vs San Joaquin Delta Mustangs (03.11.05 at Jenny Craig Pavilion, U. of San Diego)

Game 1

Cypress College 68, San Joaquin Delta College 56

Didn't take long for the first upset at the California Community Colleges Commission on Athletics women's basketball championships as Cypress, the south's No. 4 seed, upset the No. 1 seed in San Joaquin Delta, 68-56.

The victory moves Cypress into the semifinals against the winner of Riverside Community College-Sierra College tomorrow at 5 p.m. Riverside faces Sierra at 5 p.m. tonight.

Both teams struggled early, something Cypress head coach Margaret Mohr expected.

"Both teams started tight, which is natural in this type of game," said Mohr.

Cypress eventually shook off its uneasiness thanks in part to the play of guards Mia Seagraves and Brittany Imaku. Imaku finished with a game-high 19 points and 12 rebounds. Seagraves added 16 points.

"Against teams that play great transition defense you need good guard play and I thought Mia and Brittany executed very well in transition," said Mohr.

San Joaquin Delta's Jennifer Layton, the Mustangs go-to player, was held in check by the Chargers. In 31 minutes Layton was held to seven points and five rebounds.

"We really didn't do anything by design," said Mohr. "We guarded her by committee, but must say the committee did a good job."

The two teams spent a majority of the first half battling back and forth. Eventually, Cypress took control of the game with 3:30 remaining when the Chargers broke a 25-25 with a Seagraves jump shot after a pass from Imaku.

Cypress would never trail again, taking a 32-27 halftime lead.

San Joaquin Delta manage to stay close in the early minutes of the second half. Twice the Mustangs were within two points and at 13:25 had closed the gap to one point at 40-39. But Cypress fought off the challenge.

The Chargers maintained it lead and with six minutes remaining had rebuilt its lead to seven points, 57-50. San Joaquin Delta would never challenge again.
