Game 7

California Community Colleges Commission on Athletics Women's Basketball Championship

Cypress College 69, Pasadena City College 65

For the second consecutive year, Pasadena City College (PCC) went home with the runner-up trophy, this time after Cypress College (28-5) shocked the Lancers, 69-65, and won its first state championship.

Led by sophomore forward Rosalyn Omouryi, who had 12 points in the first half, and finished with a game-high 23 and game-high 14 rebounds, Cypress took advantage of a poor-shooting first-half by the Lancers in general and by PCC sophomore guard Dionne Pounds, the state player of the year, in particular.

Pounds made only one of nine from the floor in the first 20 minutes as Cypress led, 38-26, at the intermission. Cypress built its biggest lead at 38-23 with 1:15 left. Cypress converted 15 of 31 shots from the floor (48.4%), while PCC managed only 10 of 27 (27.0%).

Early in the second half, Cypress seemingly had a lid on its basket. The Chargers led, 40-26, before the Lancers caught fire and went on a 16-0 run over a 6:13 span to take a 42-40 lead with 9:39 left.

After three lead changes, Cypress broke a 52-all tie and held the lead for good.

Cypress, originally seeded No. 5, came into the tournament as the South's No. 4 seed.

"I just believed in our team," said Coach Margaret Mohr. "We have an indomitable spirit, and I think it showed tonight. We just tried to make it like just another game. Now I find it hard to believe we won the state title."

Sophomore guard Mia Seagraves added 17 points and freshman forward Ana Fakatou, the Orange Empire Conference co-Player of the Year, added ten points and eight rebounds.

Pasadena City (29-2), the state's top-ranked team all season, became the first team to lose consecutive championship games since Ventura was victimized in 1998 & 1999. The Lancers were led by Pounds with 13 points on four of 20 shooting, and Natasha Gray who added 11 points and 12 rebounds.

Cypress sophomore guard Brittany Imaku was named tournament most valuable player. Also named to the all-tournament team were Seagraves, Pounds and sophomore center Monique Diaz of Pasadena City, Shalonie Hutchinson of Antelope Valley College and Rebekah Calvert of Sierra College.
